Accelerated Reader

- It is your responsibility to read at least one book from the Accelerated Reader list and take a test on that book in the library at least once each marking period.
- After you have completed one book from the Accelerated Reader list, you may read a book that is not on the list and write a book report.
- After you have done at least one test, if you want extra credit, you may take another test or write a book report.

-If you are writing a book report, you must:

Write in pencil or blue or black ink
have a standard heading write on every other line
have at least two sides at least 280 words

You must include:

the title
the author
the main character
a plot summary
whether you would recommend it to a friend, and why or why not

You must hand in a rough draft written in long hand that shows improvements in most sentences in red.

- You must bring the results of the test to me by the deadline. It will be counted as a major test. If you hand it in late, I will take off 10 points. After one week it is a permanent zero
- If you do not hand in a test, you will receive a zero as a major test grade.

- If you do more than one Accelerated Reader test before the deadline and have a passing grade, your base grade will be the highest grade. Then you will receive extra credit. You may complete a maximum of three (3) books for extra credit.

a 100 will receive 5 points
a 90 will receive 4 points
an 80 will receive 3 points
a 70 will receive 2 points
a 60 will receive 1 point
a 50 or lower will not receive extra credit

- On most Fridays, you will be given time to read. However, you will need to spend time reading outside of class to complete this assignment.

Keep track of your tests in your notebook Table of Content.
